

David Walker

Coach Walker is a 1983 graduate of Pineville High School and a 1987 Glenville State College graduate. He received his Masters degree in Education from Shenandoah University in 1997. Coach Walker also received a second Masters degree in Administration from Shenandoah University in 2002.

While at Glenville, Walker played football for the Pioneers, serving as the team's co-captain for two years. He received W.V.I.A.C. All- Conference football honors during his junior and senior years. While at Glenville, Coach Walker also received the prestigious Montrose award.

In 1988 David Walker began his teaching and coaching careers at East Hardy High School as the youngest head coach in the state of West Virginia. While at East Hardy, Coach Walker accumulated a record of 56-41 and led the team to seven straight playoff appearances.

Coach Walker started his coaching career at MHS in 1997. He returned the bulldogs to the AAA playoffs in 1998 through 2012. Martinsburg won the AAA State Championship in 2010 and 2011 and had State Runner-up finishes in 2001, 2003, 2004 and 2006. Coach Walker has been a Head Coach for 25 years and has an overall coaching record of 213-79. He is the "winningest" coach in the history of Martinsburg High and has coached more playoff games than any coach in West Virginia history

Coach Walker is married to the former Belinda Nichols of Clay, West Virginia. They are the proud parents of two sons Derek and Troy.