

Donald Netoskie

Donald Netoskie was a member of the class of 1953. He received All State honors in football, baseball, and track at Martinsburg High School. . Many consider 'Demon Don,' the greatest running back in Martinsburg's history. Don was recruited by the legendary Bear Bryant and played football at the University of Kentucky.

After graduation, Mr. Netoskie began a 40 year career in education. He was a teacher, coach, and at the end of his career, an administrator.

Upon retirement, Donald moved to Arizona. He passed away in May of 2014.
