

Eleanor Miller Lindsay

Eleanor Miller Lindsay was a 191 graduate of Martinsburg High School. She was the captain of the 1931 MHS Girls State Championship Basketball team. She was known for her speed and accuracy and was named the best area forward. Eleanor not only excelled on the hardwood she was a model academic student. She is a Charter Member of the Martinsburg High School National Honor Society. After graduation she attended Duke University earning a degree in nursing. Along with her husband they were quiet supporters of MHS sports never wanting recognition. After her husband's death in 2000, Eleanor continued to attend many sporting events. She was honored at the opening of the 2001 baseball season by throwing out the first pitch in memory of her late husband, Donald. Although her health is declining she still tunes in to MHS sports.
