

Sequencing for Trauma Sensitive Educator Certification

Training Sequence

To become certified as a Trauma-Sensitive Educator, participants will take the three Core Trainings(below)in the assigned progression for six hours. Upon completion of such, participants may then choose from one of two pathways: the Nurtured Heart Approach or the Trauma Sensitive Classroom for an additional six hours. To complete the training portion of certification, one must take both Completer Trainings for the last four hours of training.

Use this sheet to track your learning progress through the certification sequence. If you are a returning attendee, mark any classes you have already taken to see which one's you still need. QUESTIONS? Call our office at 304-267-3510 ex 13519, or email hannah.badley@k12.wv.us.

Level I: Core Trainings

Participants must complete *all three* of these trainings before they can move to Level II

- ACES 101
- Frameworks that Foster Resilience
- Secondary Traumatic Stress

Level II: Pathways

Participants choose ONE of the two pathways and complete *all three* of the trainings listed in that sequence

The Nurtured Heart Approach Pathway

- NHA Session I
- NHA Session II
- NHA Session III

The Trauma Sensitive Classroom Pathway

- Trauma Sensitive Classroom 101
- Trauma Sensitive Classroom 102
- Trauma Informed Strategies for De-escalation

Level III: Completer Training

Participants complete *both* final trainings in order to finish the final level and complete the Trauma Informed Educator Training sequence.

- Kids in Foster Care
- Yoga in the Classroom

NOTE: this document does not guarantee you access to the classes. To register for classes, please visit MyLearning.com and sign into your account and search the name of the training in the Activity Catalogue.

Upon completion of your training plan, email Hannah Badley at hannah.badley@k12.wv.us to schedule an observation. All observations for this school year will be conducted in the Spring 2020.